BRANDON MAIL.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1892.

TIT FOR TAT.

It is now apparent to all that the biggest mistake made by the local Opposition, in the past two years, was in not protesting the election of Sifton in North Brandon, a year ago, not with the hope of securing different results in that constituency, but with the idea of letting daylight into the ways and devices of the Greenwayites, in carrying contests. We say different results need not have been expected in that division, as the result of a protest, for generally speaking one good, square purchase is worth two votes. What the faithful will do themselves, when prompted by malice and vindictiveness, is apparent from the persecution the Greenwayites have now instituted against Mr. R. P. Roblin. There was a time when they could not find words strong enough or loud enough to speak that gentleman's praise; but now that he has seen fit to separate himself from them and expose their fraudulent practices (and he knows more about them than anyone else outside of the fold) the persecution indiscriminately is the order. Not content with gerrymandering him out of his own constituency, and purchasing bodily the one he was selected to stand for in the late contest, persecution is the next step in the Greenway procession. Had Mr. Roblin accomplished the impossible, and carried Morden in the late election, the public could see some reason for an attempted persecution; but having been defeated nothing but an unquenchable desire to hoodwink the electors and cover up present and coming rascalities, can account for this latest persecution.

It is known to the faithful that there is no man in the country equally capable with Mr. Roblin, of exposing the corruption of the Greenwayites, and lest by any means he should be present the next session to tell the country of his discoveries of the party, the idea is to drive him, by any means possible, out of public life. If all capable opponents could only be driven out of public life, the corruptionists could then have full carnival, without any fear of exposure. If it cost the Greenwayites anything they might not be so free with their litigation; but it is presumable they have a balance of the Ryan plunder still in hand, and they can afford to spend it in this way. Not content with buying a people, with money they stole from that people, the next step is to wipe out all opposition with the residue.

Had the North Brandon election last year been protested, as it should have been, the public would have been advised of the operations of the twenty-five patriots who did the debauching, the number including Clarke, who brought up the $2,000 corruption fund from Winnipeg. The course of such a protest could not have failed in disqualifying the immoderate Sifton, and exposing the depth of that honor on which he and his party trade throughout the country.

In our mind if the Opposition have only "the sand" in them they are credited with, they will give the Greenwayites all the persecution they are prepared for. Protests should be entered against all those Greenwayites that are known to be elected by purchases, and the party in the country should raise a fund to see them through. It will cost money, and money that many are not well able to spare; but if the Conservatives of Manitoba tamely lie and submit to the enormities of their opponents, they may make up their minds they will get plenty of them.

A PROTEST.

And so Mr. Smart and his friends are going to protest Mr. Macdonald's election in the city. If it was a protest by the public could have made some useful discoveries, these gentlemen should have taken up the ballot-box stuffing affair; an investigation into that escapade or even the bribery of Piliag et al in North Brandon, last summer, would have been of some interest to the people.

But the deception and trickery, characteristic of the party, has to appear in this business also. If these gentlemen really desire to have contests conducted honorably and incorruptly, they should have set to work with their protests in an honorable way. For instance, the time for entering protests expires in a certain time after the gazettement of members. In the case of Mr. Macdonald's return the gazettement was held off, and that of friends of the Government returned rushed through, so that counter protests where the Opposition ought, in justice to the country, to have instituted them are now out of the question. No honorable body of men would be guilty of such crookedness as this; but nothing but crookedness need be looked for from Greenway, Sifton & Co. The elections all took place on the same day and the gazettement should all have been done in one issue of the paper, so that if protesting was to be undertaken, both parties would be on an equal footing.

What the Government mean by this protest is quite apparent. They know well that without Brandon Centre they are safe for another four years, unless indeed their corruption rankles in the nostrils of some of the more conscientious of their own following, and that a section of the latter should go into opposition, as was the case on the consideration of the N. P. Contracts. But the idea is to blind the electors and shut off an exposure of their sins of omission and commission, to give them a lease of office and high carnival for all time to come. If all the able men of the Opposition were excluded from the House, they could then easily smuggle the Brandon Sun's printing bills, up in the thousands, into the immigration expenditure, and the payments to the Ryans and the Hanays, into the expenditure for public charity, and there would be no one to expose their crookedness. The greater part of the million and a half loan is now exhausted, and all western Manitoba has for its railways that drive all the jobbing wholesaling out of our midst, and centres it in Winnipeg. The cutting off of the Opposition will enable the Greenwayites to put the rest of that money into their own pockets without any one to say "it is ill they did it." Can the electors ever see until the resources of the country are hopelessly ruined?

WHOLESALE IN BRANDON.

In our last issue we made reference to the fact that Messrs. Thompson, Codville & Co. were closing up their wholesale grocery here and removing all to Winnipeg. The firm opened here before the N. P. R. was constructed, when there was a discrimination of 25 cents per 100 pounds on fifth class freight, and since the operation of the second railway this has been so changed that successful jobbing business in Brandon is found to be burdensome.

In eastern Canada the railway rates are so arranged as to foster jobbing at certain points—Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London, etc. In every case each city named can lay down and ship within its adjacent circle cheaper than any competitor can ship into that circle. The same thing was practically true of Brandon, in Manitoba, until the construction of the N. P. R. and since it has disappeared. For instance, on the advent of the N. P. R. there was a discrimination on 5th class goods of 25 cents against Winnipeg, and now the thing is so changed as to practically destroy jobbing prospects here. A dealer in Winnipeg can import to that point 5th class goods in car lots, tranship a car lot to Brandon, and have the two shipments cost him but 10 cents more than shipment direct to Brandon, and as the margin is less than the running expenses of a business here, the average reader can see how jobbing in Brandon is seriously hampered.

As soon as the N. P. was built to Winnipeg, the Winnipeg merchants combined, as they always do when there is anything selfish in the wind, and besought the railways for protection from eastern Canada, and they got it; and in getting it they effected the removal of that which was a protection to Brandon jobbing heretofore. It is against this that Thompson, Codville & Co. make their complaint. They formed business relations here they are loth to part with, but they contend business interests lead them to this course.

To our mind this state of things can not be remedied if the business men only unite on one line of action—if they act for self as Winnipeg people invariably do. If they can send a delegation to the R. R. Cos. empowered to speak for the whole of the importers and shippers, they can get what they want and protect the business interests of the place. It only remains to be seen what action they are disposed to take.

THE SITUATION AT REGINA.

The political situation at Regina is a comical one. Premier Maitland was defeated on a want of confidence motion, when considering the estimates, through a number of causes, that had little or nothing to do with the finances. His Opposition is therefore made up of a number of elements, which cannot be united on a common ground of attack.

Mr. Cayley, a very competent man has undertaken the formation of an executive, but he has not formed it, nor yet selected a speaker, Haultain's speaker, Mr. Ross, having resigned. It was rumored in that condition of things, Cayley's friends attempted to bribe one of Haultain's supporters, and before an investigation could be had Lieut. Governor Royal prorogued the House.

At a previous session of the Ottawa House, the management of the Federal grant was placed in the hands of the Local House, instead of those of the Lieut. Governor only, as had been the rule heretofore, conceding a measure of responsible Government. The old ordinance, however, governing the Lieut. Governor's management of the Federal subsidies had not been repealed, and the in-absence of the parliament the Lieut. Governor will doubtless disburse the monies, which will lead to the bitterest acrimony when the House meets again. But how the tangle will be unravelled no one appears to know. If Mr. Cayley had the ear of the country (and some seem to think he has) and if the Lieut. Governor granted him a dissolution and an appeal to the country, that would be one way to break the deadlock; but some appear to think Cayley does not want a dissolution and of course Haultain cannot ask it. If a dissolution is not granted until it is time to call the House together again within a year, on the next assembly the circus of a few weeks ago would be repeated over again, and that is all that could come of it.

WHEAT.

It is very difficult to give, or to attempt to give, advice to the farming community on the wheat question this year. On account of the low rating of the markets in Great Britain (and the prices are now as low as they have ever been known in a century) in the ordinary state of affairs, one would feel an advance is not far distant. The supplies held by English dealers are not particularly heavy and the crop in other wheat growing countries is not specially large; but there are other elements at work that have a depressing effect. The ravages of cholera and other contagious diseases in the east, and the cautiousness of dealers who have suffered the last few years are having a heavy bearing on the market; but with all these the falling prices must advance. Those who have good samples, who have the crop perfectly secure and are not in need of money can scarcely lose by holding. Those, however, who are not so circumstanced, might do worse than sell at present prices. The yield is fair, the sample good, and the highest figures the markets of the east will allow should be got on the North-west crop which will bring a fair return for the labor of the past year, if not a profitable season's returns.

DESERTION AND DEATH.

THE SAD SUICIDE OF EMMA LOUISE WILLIAMS.

Found Dead by Her Father Saturday Morning in an Out-house—The Young Woman Described by Her Lover.

A very sad case of suicide occurred Saturday, Emma Louise Williams, daughter of Jos. Williams, 34 Common street, being the victim. Mr. Williams, who is a highly respected contractor, was the first to discover his daughter after the rash act had been committed. He arose about 7.30 Saturday morning and going to a line house in the rear of his dwelling, was horrified to find his daughter stretched out on the ground, lifeless. By her side were two bottles, one of which, a two-ounce bottle labelled "Tinct. Aconite," was empty, and the other, an eight-ounce one, which contained bi-chloride of mercury, was partially full.

The city officials were immediately telephoned for and Coroner Benson communicated with. The mother of the unfortunate girl is at present visiting in the east and Mr. Williams is very adverse to having an inquest held, as the motive for the rash act is well known. It appears that the deceased had been engaged to a young man employed by the Bishop of Rupert's Land, and the marriage was to have taken place last May. About two days before the marriage, the young man in question came into the city, drew some money from the bank and left for England, deserting his intended bride without a word. This seems to have preyed on the young woman's mind and caused extreme melancholy and last night's act was but the sad termination of several months' despondency.

At what time the deed was committed is not known, as none of the family heard the deceased moving about the house after she had retired, but from the appearance of the body, death had probably occurred several hours before she was discovered. Aconite, the drug which was probably used by the deceased to accomplish her end, is a very powerful poison, causing paralysis in a very short time.

The remains were interred at Mapleton, five miles this side of West Selkirk, the funeral leaving her father's residence at 10.30 this morning.

The deceased was about twenty-eight years of age and was an active member of Christ church. She took a great interest in church matters and was respected and loved by all who knew her.

The Outlook For Threshing.

If the weather is not at all favorable this fall, the work of threshing the crop in Manitoba will be pushed through earlier than usual. The growth of straw this year is not heavy, while the number of threshing outfits is much greater than last year. These two features are favorable to the early threshing of the crop. The enormous growth of straw last year, made the labor of threshing an enormous task, and there were not machines enough in the country to handle the crop. Farmers were unable to get their threshing done in the fall, and vast numbers of stacks stood into the winter, when they were damaged from prolonged exposure to the elements. In some sections of the country hundreds of stacks of last year's crop are still standing.

All the threshing outfits which could be secured were brought up last fall, until the stacks in the hands of the machine men were exhausted. Thus a large addition was made to the number of threshing outfits in the country last fall. The official Manitoba crop bulletin for August reported 1180 threshing outfits in the province, as compared with 977 a year ago, nearly all of which are operated by steam. Notwithstanding the large number of threshing rigs purchased last fall, a large number of additional outfits are being secured this season. Some parties who were unable to secure machines last year, altered their orders to require an outfit this fall. All that is required, therefore, is average weather, to get through with the threshing of the crop in good time this year. The disastrous losses which occurred last year, through such a large number of stacks being left unthreshed until winter, and of the stacks being imperfectly built, is not likely to be repeated this year.

DEATH OF J. TROW, EX-M.P.

THE GENIAL LIBERAL WHIP Receives a Sudden Call To-day— Something About Him.

TORONTO, Sept. 10.—James Trow, ex-M.P., for South Perth, died suddenly to-day just as he was leaving the car to go to his residence to see Dr. Trow, of Toronto, who was his brother. The cause was heart failure. Mr. Trow was one of the best known politicians in Canada, having for many years occupied the position of Liberal whip at Ottawa, a position he filled with great urbanity and satisfaction to all. He was universally loved and respected, particularly by all members of parliament on both sides of the house. He was re-elected for South Perth in the last general election, but was unsuccessful, and at the bye-election which followed Mr. Trow took his seat in the house. Mr. Trow took his seat much to heart. His death is a serious loss to the Liberal party, as he was one of the best known and most influential members of that party. He was always a warm friend of the Northwest and never lost an opportunity to say a good word for the country. He visited many times.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

The Parliamentary Companion for 1883 contains the following particulars of his life: James Trow was born in Newton, Montgomeryshire, North Wales, 16th December, 1825. Educated at Welshpool, came to Canada 1841. Married Miss Mary Moore, of Blenheim, Oxford, Ont., a conveyancer. Vice president of the British Mortgage and Loan Co. Sat for South Perth in Local Assembly from 1867 until 1871, when defeated. First returned to the Commons at general election 1872; re-elected by acclamation at general election 1874; re-elected 1878, and again returned at last general election. A Liberal.

THE PREMIERSHIP.

The Empire Indicates that Thompson is the Man for the Position.

Toronto, Sept. 9.—The Empire referring editorially to rumors regarding the resignation of Sir John Abbott, says: "If the course of events should result in the voluntary relinquishment of the premiership by Sir John, no serious minded person questions who his successor must be. It deprecates the raising of the creed issue and although it does not mention his name in the entire article, it indicates that Sir John Thompson will be the choice of the Conservative party, should it become necessary to fill Sir John Abbott's place."

Montreal, Sept. 9.—La Presse, Chaplain's organ, publishes an article stating that Sir John Thompson is the coming premier of Canada. It says there is no doubt Abbott has made up his mind to give up the premiership.

We call the attention of parents to the regulation of the Department of Education requiring all children attending school to be vaccinated. In order to avert as far as possible the threatened outbreak of Smallpox in the Province, Teachers, Trustees and Parents are requested to see that all children in attendance at the Public schools have been successfully vaccinated. Teachers should make strict enquiry into the matter, and report each case where vaccination has not been successfully performed, to the parent or guardian of the child, requesting them to attend to this important duty at once. DANIEL McLEAN, For the Department of Education.

Our Industries.

In going my rounds, I, as reporter for the "MAIL" called in on McKenzie & Russell at their warehouse and carriage shop, on the corner of 6th street and Princess Ave.

Here all kinds of blacksmithing, carriage building and general horsehoesing is done.

The blacksmith shop and wood shop is 100x36, containing four forges, all the modern improvements for this kind of work and as others are invented it is the intention of the firm to at once procure them.

At the back of the blacksmithing department is the wood shop. Here all the wheelwrighting is done. On going up stairs the first room you enter is a large one containing a full line of bent stuff and carriage goods of every description. From here you pass into the paint room, where the different carriages and buggies receive their principal adornment. The next is the finishing room where the newly painted rig receives its finishing touch of polish and varnish, and is then sent to the carriage goods store to be an object of admiration to the public eye and also probably coveted by many.

Crossing over from this department, on a large wide and strong platform, we enter the second story of the carriage warehouse. This building is a new one 100x36. Here, when a full stock is on hand, a large number of buggies, etc., are kept, but owing to the heavy sale made by this firm, there are not many at present on view, amongst, however, is one that took several prizes at the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition, and no one would be surprised that it did, for it is a beautiful finished vehicle in every particular. All the carriages I saw were of a very strong, serviceable character and would, I fancy, be most favorites with the farming community.

This firm manufactured and sold about 30 carriages, buggies and wagons this season, besides the very large number they imported.

They employ eight hands, but as both Mr. McKenzie and Russell, are practical men they probably count as a host in themselves. The wages paid out are $1200 a week. This is an industry that not only speaks well for Brandon, but for the Province at large and should be fostered.

SLAUGHTERED HIS WIFE.

The Deed Done With a Pen Knife by a Colored Barber.

TORONTO, Sept. 12.—A dispatch from Amherstburg, Ont., says that on Saturday night in a fit of jealous rage the colored barber of that place, Anderson Venev, aged 45, cut his wife's throat with a pen-knife and then attempted to cut his own throat. The police, however, attracted by Mrs. Venev's screams made their appearance in time to prevent Venev's attempt on himself from succeeding, but they were too late to save the woman who died before medical assistance could be called. She was Venev's second wife and had been married 11 years. Although she bore an excellent reputation Venev was insanely jealous of her, and in consequence the couple had repeated quarrels. About a month ago in one of these quarrels Venev nearly chopped his wife to death with an axe.

600 Passengers Safely Landed.

The British steamship Mona Isle, from Dublin for Douglas, Isle of Man, ran on a rock off the island at midnight. There were 600 passengers on board, and for a short time after she struck there were indications of a panic, but the officers succeeded in assuring them so that there was little danger, and they quieted down and awaited rescue. Distress rockets were sent up and were answered from the shore. The life-boat men and coast guards soon succeeded in getting a line to the steamer. The Breconshire buoy was rigged, and every one of the 600 passengers were taken ashore in safety. The crew are still aboard, and an attempt will be made to float the Mona Isle at next tide.

TALKING OF WRITERS.

DR. S. WEIR MITCHELL, the Philadelphia specialist and author, is said to be one of the foremost living authorities on the subject of snake-bites.

ASTOR OF TROLOPE was one of the profane of authors, and he was accustomed, it is alleged, to swear frequently when in good society. He was also careless of his clothes.

It is said that Senator Mills has almost completed a work on the tariff which is to be entitled: "Protection and Plutocracy." It will contain about one hundred thousand words and be divided into ten chapters.

A PROMINENT lady novelist asserts that she receives many sad letters from husbands who claim that their domestic happiness is being undermined because their wives devote their attention to study instead of to housework.

The first negro novelist has appeared, Mrs. Sarah E. Farris, of Chicago, a woman of good education, aged about twenty-six. The melancholy story "True Love," is not a book of especial promise, but the first edition is nearly exhausted and the author is writing another story.

MR. BERING GOULD, the well-known novelist, is fifty-nine years of age. He belongs to an old Devonshire family and is a member of the House of Commons. Strangely enough he wrote something like thirty or forty books on religious subjects and folklore before he won celebrity as a novelist.

NEW C. P. R. STATION.

The new station is to be built this fall or early in the spring. It will be 129x32, a ladies' and gentlemen's waiting room with lavatories, etc. attached to each, a ticket office, baggage room, express office and sundry others on the ground floor. The building in shape will be somewhat similar to the present one only longer.

It is the intention of the Company to put in two passenger tracks, on the site at present occupied by the station, with a platform between, so that the east train and the South one, can both be at the depot at the same time. This fall some extra freight tracks will be added. The C. P. R. authorities made a proposition to the City Council that it was possible that they might wish to close 1st street. This the council would not entertain for a moment, for however uncertain the title of the city is to the closing of 1st street, there is no doubt of the city's clear title to 1st street.

How They Slash Down Wheat in Manitoba.

Stories of tall wheat, big cabbage or weighty tubers, etc., are often cited by newspapers and citizens in a boastful manner as to the productivity of a grain district. Not often are we told of great wheat cutting, notwithstanding that there are great threshing fields. But the Globe has "a tall unfail" which no doubt will be a record smasher. On Monday morning Wm. Rae started into a forty acre patch of wheat that was ready for the sickle. After working a short time he broke some little thing about the binder which necessitated a trip to town for repairs. By the time he was ready to start the machine again over two hours had been lost. Cutting was then continued with the one binder and a change of horses until about six o'clock p.m., when And. Rae came along and put his machine in the field, the two cutting until shortly after eight o'clock, when the latter quit on account of his machine not working well. Wm. Rae continued cutting at a head light, with regular changes of horses, until two o'clock Tuesday morning, when the last sheaf of the forty acres was thrown from the McCormick binder and the last shock set up. This is no "fish" story but a genuine wheat cutting story, as the writer saw the field and the work done and can therefore vouch for the correctness of the statement that forty acres of wheat were cut between six o'clock Monday morning and two o'clock Tuesday morning, with over two hours lost time, which was made up by the second machine going in to the field. Otherwise the work was done with one binder driven by one man. Who can beat it?—Boisvein Globe.

A WINNIPEGGER'S TRIP.

John Whelan, late proprietor of the Whelan House, one of the principal hotels of Winnipeg, has started on a novel trip with a team of Indian ponies. Whelan and two companions propose to go by wagon from Winnipeg to Jackson, Fla. They expect to reach Florida by December, will remain there during the winter and return by wagon via Chicago next year, taking in the World's Fair en route. They have a complete Gipsy outfit. The trip is taken as the result of a wager.

FIRST TRAIN FROM MACLEOD.

The Calgary & Edmonton Railway, after completion to Macleod—Work on the Crow's Nest Pass Extension.

Calgary, Sept. 10.—Track laying on the C. & E. south has been finished in the C. & E. Town site of Macleod, and now there remains some twelve miles of surfacing to be completed. The first through train from the terminus arrived in Calgary this morning. Work on the line into Crow's Nest Pass has commenced. A gang of graders have been at work some three miles west of the town site. Contractors James Ross and Partners are expected shortly from the east.

THE NORTHWEST CROPS.

The Globe's Special Correspondent Examines the Country Around Estevan—The New Coal Fields.

Estevan, N.W.T., Sept. 7.—(Special.) I spent the day visiting the coal mines and surrounding country, with the view of ascertaining as far as possible the value of land for farming and the value of the coal for domestic use. I found a good deal of scepticism in Manitoba as to the coal here, so was surprised to find how it was. The coal is of a somewhat low grade of lignite, and slakes fast when exposed to the sun and wind, but makes excellent fuel. I saw it burning in cooking and heating stoves in the prospectors' camps. It burns clear and will keep in all night. The entire absence of sulphur and gaseous matter renders it more healthy and less dangerous than hard coal. I am satisfied that the coal district if properly worked solves the fuel problem of the Northwest. It is essentially the poor man's fuel, and hundreds of farmers who hitherto had to draw wood ten to fifteen miles are now able after delivering wheat to draw coal back from market at a cost limited by the Government to $4 per ton. Almost equally important is the discovery of clay of the finest quality for all kinds of brick for building purposes. A company here intend putting in a plant as soon as sufficient coal has been mined for the burning kilns. There is very little settlement around here, although there is plenty of free land to the north of the town. Estevan is about 125 miles west of Deloraine. Small towns are springing up all along the line. There is not much grain grown west of Melita so far, but new settlements are breaking up land considerably this year. All the grain yet seen at points along the line is a fine sample. The majority of it will grade numbers one and two hard. I will work east to Brandon tomorrow.

Europe's Wheat Crop.

Perhaps as careful an estimate of probable European harvest of wheat in 1892 as any published thus far, that of the Vienna congress not excepted, is the one furnished by Berlin under date of Aug. 19. It states that on the basis of estimates then available the wheat crop of Europe will probably show an increase of 30,000,000 bushels over the total for 1891, only 165,000,000 bushels less than the European harvest of 1890, but 48,000,000 bushels more than the current there in 1889. This means a probable European wheat harvest this year equal to an average of three preceding years. The countries which have harvests of greater abundance this year are France, Russia and notably Danubian provinces and Turkey. Germany and some of the smaller countries have increased outputs, but England, Austria-Hungary, Italy, Spain, and the Netherlands come out with diminished totals.—Bradstreet's.

AGAINST HOME RULE.

Toronto Protestants to Hold a Counter Demonstration to Mr. Lynch's.

Toronto Protestants who are opposed to Home Rule and favor the continued union of the Emerald Isle with England propose to hold a counter demonstration to the Biske event. It will take place on Sept. 20, the night after the Irish Nationalists have welcomed the member for South Longford.

This action was decided upon last night after the delivery of a strong lecture against Home Rule by Rev. James C. Burns, "the Blind Preacher," in Occident hall.

An after meeting was held, with Ald. Bell in the chair and Dr. S. H. McFaul as secretary. It was decided that it would be wrong to allow it to go forth to the world that the Toronto people had unanimously endorsed the Irish Nationalist cause when there is so much sentiment here to the contrary, and the counter demonstration was agreed upon. Ald. Bell, Rev. Stuart Acheson, Harry Lovelock, Dr. McFaul, Dr. Armstrong, George Gore and Mr. Greer were appointed a committee to make arrangements and secure speakers. Ald. Bell was appointed chairman, and the committee will meet to-morrow night in the County Orange hall.

A big attempt will be made to outdo the Nationalists' demonstration in numbers and enthusiasm. The event will take place in the Pavilion.

AFTER TWO MONTHS.

Detective Cox Captures a Portage Thief.

Two months ago Mr. McCrae, the N. P. section foreman, while at work pulled off his coat and vest and left them on a handcar. When he returned to get them at the close of the day he found that some one had appropriated his purse which contained $146 in cash and two cheques, one for $25 the other for $45. He suspected John Bullard of the theft and went to his house and accused him of it. Bullard denied the charge, but Mr. McCrae secured a warrant and had Bullard and his premises searched. No trace of the money was found but for the next few weeks Bullard was under the tender surveillance of the police although he was not aware of the facts. A few days ago he changed a ten dollar bill, one corner of which had been nibbled away by mice. This was an encouraging clue to Detective Cox who now felt certain that Bullard had the money hidden away somewhere in his house. Another search was instituted and ninety dollars of the money was found sewed in a bed tick. The purse, containing the two cheques, was found between the bath and sheeting of the hen house. The prisoner has been committed for trial.

HIS LABORS ARE ENDED.

The Most Rev. John Medley, D.D., Bishop of Fredericton, Passes Away—Sketch of His Life.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 9.—Most Rev. John Medley, D.D., Bishop of Fredericton and metropolitan of Canada, died this morning after a long illness, aged 88.

The Most Rev. John Medley, D.D., LL.D., who has just passed to his rest, was the senior bishop of the whole Anglican communion, with the exception of the bishop of Guiana, who, though a year or two younger, has just completed the jubilee of his episcopate. Dr. Medley was born Dec. 19, 1804, and was within four months of his 88th year. He graduated in honors at Wadham College, Oxford, in 1826, and was admitted to Deacon's orders 64 years ago. He was successively vicar of St. John's, Truro, St. Thomas, Exeter, and prebendary of Exeter Cathedral, and in 1845 when New Brunswick was created a separate diocese, he became the first bishop under the title Bishop of Fredericton. He has presided over the diocese for over 47 years. In 1861 Dr. Kingdon was elected coadjutor bishop, but Bishop Medley has worked up to the last. He has preached and held confirmation services up to the last few weeks. He was elected metropolitan of Eastern Canada in 1879. Three of his notable characteristics were keenness of intellect, decision of character, and remarkable simplicity of life. The coadjutor bishop succeeds him in the See, but the Church of England in N. B. will regretfully miss for many a year the lovable and well known form of one of the ablest and most learned prelates that have ever ruled a Canadian diocese. He leaves a widow and three sorrowing sons. The sons reside in England; two of them are clergymen, and one a captain in the Royal navy.

RUSSELL.

This place is the northern terminus of the Shell River branch of the M. & N. W. Railway, and is beautifully situated on a gentle slope of round facing westward. It is a very pretty village with a population of about 550, and the good taste and enterprise of its residents is displayed in the style of buildings which they have erected, and which are mostly very neat looking, some of them handsome. There is also a large amount of nice wide sidewalks which give the place a tidy appearance which very few places of the same size can boast of.

The place is growing rapidly, about 10 new buildings will be erected here this season.

The Canadian Order of Foresters are building a block on the corner of Main and Assiniboine streets, the upper part of which will be used as a hall in which to hold their meetings, and the lower story will be occupied by Messrs. Fisher & Co's as a general store.

Messrs. W. Simpson, J. G. Boulton, D. M. Kinnaird and J. B. Callen are building new residences.

The business places here present a very new and business like appearance, among them are Messrs. Brown, Smidie & Co's general store, J. J. Moon, flour & feed, also farm implements and lumber. W. Doig, hardware, stoves and furnaces, Hudsons Bay Co., general store.

Mr. Wes. Thompson has a nice furniture store and also manufactures pumps.

Mr. T. N. Huddleston sells farm implements, also pianos, organs, sewing machines, etc.

There is also a blacksmith, carriage maker, jeweler and a baker here.

There are two hotels in this place viz; the Central, Mr. J. Laycock, proprietor, and the Queen's, Mr. A. Cleo, proprietor.

There are also livery and feed stables for the accommodation of the public.

Mr. Alex. McDougall keeps a meat market and sell farm implements, and makes a specialty of the McCormick binder. This gentleman has just shipped 150 head of cattle to the Old Country, his being the second shipment for him this year, he having shipped 80 head last June. He intends shipping another lot this fall.

We are informed that a movement is on to start a cheese factory not far from here.

Mr. J. McArthur does a general restaurant business, and keeps a reading room, where a very pleasant evening can be passed among books and papers.

A. M. Tudge, from Moosemin, a few days ago paid out $5,000 in cash for cattle to be sent to Europe and expects to pay out the same amount next month in the same business.

These cattle were all raised in the vicinity of Russell, and this speaks well for the farming community, as well as for the adaptability of this section of country for stock-raising.

A herd of ponies has lately arrived from Fort McLeod and are for sale.

Dr. Wright has been in Russell three years. He came from eastern Ontario and is well pleased with the country. He has worked up a large practice and is the only physician in the place. He has been very successful in his practice and is a thorough gentleman. He has a large farm which he cultivates by means of employed help. He reports excellent crops and no damage done by frost, and is well pleased with the outlook for farmers here and this locality offers great inducements for farmers in the east to move here, especially farmers with capital.

The Presbyterian and English church people have very pretty church buildings and the Methodists hold their meetings in the school house.

Mr. T. O. Webster is the school teacher and gives great satisfaction in the way he teaches the pupils, of whom there is an average attendance of 40.

"August Flower"

"I have been afflicted with biliousness and constipation for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took it according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Mr. R. J. Crisp, of the Souris was again in the city. The atmosphere of the Souris, or something else, must agree with our friend R. J., judging from his jovial looks.

Mr. Joseph W. McLellan and wife, nee Miss Margeret McNaughton of Virden, who were married in that town last week, are in the city spending their honeymoon.

Mr. J. D. McGregor will shortly return from England. He has purchased a considerable number of horses, amongst these are supposed to be some of the first rate quality. The horsemen here, are on the qui vive for his expected arrival.

And so John L. Sullivan is no longer the champion pugilist of the world, as he was knocked out on the 21st road by Jack Johnson, at New Orleans, on the 8th inst. The fight was a bloody one and from the start Corbett had the advantage as to science and staying power. At last Sullivan was never better than a powerful brawler, and it is well for the benefit of society he has received the quinquus.

The performances of the Fax Company, on the evenings of the 7th and 8th, were greatly appreciated. Miss Lili Kleiser has a delightful voice, and her songs received an encore each time. Though few in numbers, the company is great in quality.

The tobacco of Martinis was once the favorite with the smoking world, and when old Father Hennipen descended the Mississippi about 1680 the Indians were much surprised to see a European with such an excellent sample of their favorite shrub. But the smokers of the "Myrtle Navy" would give but a poor account of the once celebrated Martinis. Their favorite brand is as much superior to it as it was to the raw and uncurled leaf which the Indians of that day smoked.
